

"The human brain is a pattern-seeking device..."

Your ticket out the door is writing one thing you will do this week that will involve students in active reading, writing and/or thinking that uses the steps of reciprocal teaching OR one thing you will do that helps students see how reciprocal teaching steps apply in all disciplines or "real life."